Lovejoy's Letter

Dear Parents and Guardians,

We're already two weeks into the final stretch of the school year—only six full weeks left! As we push toward the finish line, we need your help ensuring students are present and engaged each day. Good attendance is crucial so we can finish strong and meet all academic goals.

To support better attendance, please note:

Students who are not attending regularly will have their phones locked for the school day. We want everyone focused and present to make the most of these last few weeks.

With the weather finally improving, it's a great time for students to enjoy upcoming events and activities! Here are a few important reminders:

Upcoming Field Trips

Career Fair at Whiteland – April 23

Seniors: Time to Finish Strong

Seniors who are still working through requirements should check in with Mrs. Springer as soon as possible to ensure they're on track for graduation. There's still time to turn things around with support and effort!
