All Pro Dad's Day

Join us for the PMA All Pro Dad's Day breakfast on September 10th at 7:15 am in our cafeteria.

Team up with other dads and kids at our school for a quick, fun breakfast. You'll take away some great tips and resources to help you be the best dad you can be and you'll strengthen your relationship with your kids at the same time.

You may also pick up an information packet outside the PMA front office.

Second Step

This week, your child will think about his or her values and how he or she can use those values to help make good decisions. Ask your child about some of his or her values. Talk about how his or her values are similar to or different from yours.
